SUSTENANCE

Mr Fogg's Chef Recommends	46-47

I, Phileas J. Fogg, Esq., hereby humbly present to you, my closest of friends, this anthology of truly sumptuous libations that I have gathered from the farthest reaches of the globe for your approval and enjoyment. I wish you a very merry and marvellous time within my Mayfair residence.

I leave you in the most precise hands of my household staff who will personally cater to all of your desires.

Please charge your glasses and make a toast to Queen and country!

Huzzah!

Phileas

Phileas J. Fogg, Esq.

REQUIRED BEHAVIOUR OF ALL THOSE ENTERING THESE DOORS

- I. All ranks shall be left outside; similarly, hats - and particularly swords - are not to be carried beyond the Reception Hall.
- II. Orders of procedure and haughtiness shall be left at the doors.
- III. Be merry, but neither spoil nor break anything.
- IV. Be seated, stand or walk as best pleases you,
but at all times be respectful of others.
- V. Speak with moderation and not too loudly, so that others have neither an earache nor headache.
- VI. Argue without anger, discuss with passion, but never aim to have the last word.
- VII. Do not sigh or yawn, neither bore nor fatigue others.
- VIII. Agree to partake in any innocent entertainment suggested by others.
- IX. Eat well of good things, but drink in relative moderation so that each should be able to always to find his legs upon leaving these doors.
- X. You are guests in my private abode. What goes in one ear should go out the other before departing my residence.

LOUIS XIII

Pérry de Martin

THINK A CENTURY AHEAD.

Each decanter is the life achievement of generations of cellar masters.

Since its origins in 1874, each generation of cellar master selects the oldest and most precious eaux-de-vie for LOUIS XIII.

Today, Cellar Master Baptiste Loiseau is setting aside our finest eaux-de-vie, as a legacy to his successors for the coming century.

LOUIS XIII is a fragrance. The fragrance of time.
