

To whom this letter may reach and for those smart enough to find it, I bid you welcome to my humble Treehouse. It has taken me nigh 80 days to collect my specimens. Some easy to come by, others required a contest of wills to procure.

Myself, in my humble essence, and my dear Valet Passepartout circumnavigated the globe witnessing flora and fauna that both equally amazed and filled us with trepidation. The curious concoctions found in our secret refuge above our Botanical Tavern mimic the sights we encountered as well as the stories shared with us on our journeys.

I do hope you fellow adventurers seek out and try the lovely drinks we have prepared for you and create your own tale and explore the corners of the world yourself.

From my humble beginnings to your glorious finish, I bid you farewell and wish we cross paths somewhere along the way.

Phileas Fogg Esq.
